

award-winning championship course offers breath-taking scenery and an unparalleled test of golf.

Designed by renowned links golf architect, Dr. Martin Hawtree, the course follows a classical pattern of two out-and-back loops of nine. Woven through the majestic dunes, the course rises to find panoramic views of the sea and plunges into secluded valleys with each hole boasting distinct characteristics and unique features. With six tees on every hole, the course is suitable for all levels of golfer.

A relaxed lunch can be found at The Dunes Restaurant & Bar – a comfortable restaurant with stunning views over The Great Dunes of Scotland. Sink into the deep leather armchairs or a tweed Chesterfield to enjoy modern classics and familiar favourites including fish and chips, Trump burgers and mac & cheese – all served with a Trump twist.

For those looking to perfect their swing after dining, Trump International features the largest practice facilities in the country including a twenty-two-acre driving range with north and south facing tees, an extensive short game area and 3,500 square metre putting green. The exceptional playing surfaces cater for all shot-making requirements, tempting golfers to stay until the light fades beyond the dunes.

Following an exhilarating day of golf, guests are rewarded with traditional Scottish hospitality in a spectacular setting. Nestled in the heart of the magnificent and ancient estate, the five-star MacLeod House & Lodge, provides unsurpassed luxury accommodation, comfort and service. With origins in the 15th Century, the baronial mansion offers period features, while providing modern amenities fit for the 21st Century. The exquisite sixteen-bedroomed hotel is adorned with opulent furnishings, fine linens and Italian marble en-suites. With its secret stairways, traditional log fires, whisky snug and spectacular grounds, MacLeod House is available as an exclusive use venue only and promises lavish accommodation in a secluded and dramatic location, minutes from the clubhouse and golf facilities.

Tucked away within grand estate grounds, the Heritage Retreat at Trump MacLeod House & Lodge offers sanctuary and rest with an array of exclusive beauty and wellness treatments.

Trump International Golf Links is ideally flanked by two further esteemed courses, Cruden Bay and Royal Aberdeen, and with Trump Turnberry, St Andrews and other iconic sites a short journey away, Scotland truly is the home of golf.

When the appetite for golf is satisfied, many guests turn their hand to a range of other activities – a true benefit when visiting the resort. Ideally located in the North of Scotland, the resort provides visitors with easy access to the region's famed attractions. From its legendary mountains and glens to its esteemed Scotch whisky distilleries, Royal estates, castles, fishing and other country pursuits, Aberdeenshire abounds with history, culture and world-renowned attractions to explore.

Trump International Golf Links is ideally situated for visitors, business travellers and golfers. With easy connects to Edinburgh, Glasgow, London, Paris and beyond, there are a wide variety of travel options available for international visitors.
